

TRAINING CONSULTANT PROFILE

THE QUALITY ENGINE

SANDRA SILVA - SENIOR CONSULTANT

With experience in the automotive and chemical industries, Sandra has the experience and knowledge as trainer and consultant.

After working in other consulting companies in México for 5 years Sandra joined The PIC group since 2009 and is leading consultant in the field of Quality Management Systems and Engineering. She provides training and consulting on variety of topics, from ISO 9001:2015, IATF 16949:2016 to Automotive Core Tools. Describe as passionate in the subject, pleasant and with field experience to provide information and examples on the subjects about the industry. Sandra expertise is sought out by many companies throughout México and the United States.

Before starting his collaboration with the group, Sandra worked in the automotive industry in metal stamping and plastic injection companies as a Quality Manager being this invaluable experience from where she acquires the knowledge the bases and he passion for the industry. At the same time Sandra has collaborated with two of the most important universities in Mexico as a teacher, teaching the subjects of Quality control and Quality Systems for university level, diploma and masters.

Sandra is a graduate from the Autonomy University of Guadalajara in Chemistry (QFB) she obtained a master's degree in Quality anagement systems and later a black belt in lean manufacturing.

Areas of Expertise

- IATF Internal Auditor
- IATF Internal Auditor Upgrade
- FMEA
- Label Error Proofing
- Effective Problem Solving
- ISO 14001 Internal Auditor

INNOVATIVE TRAINING

Founded in 1985, PIC has been synonymous with Quality for over 30 years, servicing customers throughout North America. PIC has been recognized as a leader of customized seminars for Automotive, Aerospace and Manufacturing customers. PIC provides public seminars, onsite workshops and online training in a variety of Quality topics, that play an important part in the success of today's manufacturing companies.